From the South: Take Hwy. 1 to Hwy. 17. Then follow below directions.

ONCE YOU ARE ON HWY 17: Follow Hwy 17 through the Santa Cruz Mountains. (Great roads but there is often heavy traffic through the Santa Cruz Mountains).

Take Mt. Hermon/Glen Canyon Road Exit.

Head right (northwest) on Mt. Hermon Road going through the town of Scott's Valley. Follow Mt. Hermon Road until you reach a T-intersection at Graham Hill Road. Turn right.

At next signal, (2 blocks away), is Hwy 9. Turn right at the signal and follow Hwy 9 for 6 miles into the town of Boulder Creek.

Boulder Creek has one stop sign at the intersection of Hwy 9 and Hwy 236, (also Big Basin Way). You will see a gas Station (only one in town).

Follow our narrow, windy driveway to the top of the hill. Drive slowly (10 mph) and beep your horn at the blind curves in case someone is coming down. A vehicle heading uphill has right of way.

Please do not use computer maps that route you through Bear Creek Road, which is a very windy, long and narrow road.
